Traditional Funeral Services and Cremation Options

We keep your needs in mind and help create a service that is meaningful and respectful of your loved one. Traditional services offer visitation for family and friends, the casket can be open or closed and a procession to the cemetery.

Cremation options offer families the opportunity to arrange and choose services tribute. A Memorial Service is held and the family may choose to have the cremated remains present in a memorial urn. Service can be held at the Fall Creek Funeral Home Memorial Chapel or other setting of your choice. Ask about our Graveside Dove Release.

We offer full service with a personal touch. We can assist with the preparation of obituary notice, filing of the official death certificate, selection of casket (on-site merchandise center) and selection and training of pall bearers. We also accept life insurance policies.

An Unchangeable Element of Life since the beginning of time

The End Comes... No Matter What

A funeral has served since the beginning of time as the symbol and process to reflect the official end of One's life. So why is it, the subject people talk about the least is death? Why do we refuse to talk and prepare for death when we know it is inevitable?

Death is a Celebration of Life for those that know Jesus Christ.

The funeral or memorial service gives the family the chance to mourn and remember the life of their loved one. It provides closure and comfort to know that your loved one was treated with respect and compassion.

The passing from death to life should be considered as a wiping away of all tears.

Fall Creek Funeral Home releases a dove at the graveside to symbolize this belief.

Psalm 55:1-6

- 1 "Listen to my prayer, O God,
do not ignore my plea;
- 2 hear me and answer me.
My thoughts trouble me and I am distraught
- 3 at the voice of the enemy,
at the stares of the wicked;
for they bring down suffering upon me
and revile me in their anger.
- 4 My heart is in anguish within me;
the terrors of death assail me.
- 5 Fear and trembling have beset me;
horror has overwhelmed me.
- 6 I said, "Oh, that I had the wings of a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest-" (NIV)

It's our ministry – serving families at the time of death and showing the Love of Christ.

Top that off with personal service and attention to detail. You'll feel comfortable the moment you walk into Fall Creek Funeral Home. Ask about our We Care Program – our services provided after the funeral.
